Headline:
Breezy and mild today. Turning colder tomorrow.

Today:
A bright and breezy start to the day with the best of any sunshine across eastern areas. Becoming cloudier with rain and drizzle over the Pennines although staying dry in the east. Becoming windier later but remaining mild. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Windy overnight with a mixture of clear spells and some showery rain, especially over the north and west of the region. Rain will become more widespread by dawn. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Friday:
Wet and windy through the morning with heavy rain pushing across the region. Skies will brighten late morning onwards with sunshine and showers, wintry over hills. Feeling colder. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cold, bright and breezy on Saturday with wintry showers fading. Windy and milder on Sunday and Monday with rain at times, especially in the west with eastern areas drier.
